

Visa for family reunion to a German minor

If you are the parent of a German minor who lives in Germany, you may apply for a residence permit in form of a visa to be reunited with your child in order to exercise your parental (custodian) rights, you must apply for a residence permit in form of a visa.

A visa for family reunion to a German minor is a national visa and does also entitle you to enter other Schengen countries for a stay up to 90 days for tourist purposes.

Upon submission of ALL the required documents, the application will be processed by the Embassy and forwarded to the competent Alien's authority. Family reunion applications take at least up to 8 weeks to be processed. Applications from Madagascar take a general processing time of 8 to 10 weeks. Status requests being send before the expiration of this processing time will not be answered.

After the application has been approved by the competent Alien's authority, the German Embassy will issue a residence permit in form of a visa with the duration for 90 days. A final residence permit will be issued by the Alien's Authority of your place of residence after entering the country. The Alien's Authorities require all foreigners to register in the town of their residence after arrival.

For identification purposes and in order to take the fingerprints applicants are requested to be personally present at the German Embassy during Visa submission and hand in the following documents.
