

Research visa

All persons who wish to work as a researcher at/for an institution in Germany based on a research agreement (Aufnahmevereinbarung / Vertrag zur Erteilung einer Aufenthaltserlaubnis nach § 20 Aufenthaltsgesetz – Hosting agreement / Contract for issuance of a residence permit according to Section 20 of the German Residence Act) are required to obtain a residence permit (including their spouses and minor children – if applicable). In order to enter Germany, a research visa has to be issued.

A visa in order to do a research stay in Germany is a national visa and does also entitle you to enter the other Schengen countries for a stay up to 90 days for tourist purposes.

Upon submission of ALL the required documents, the application will be processed by the Embassy and (if required) forwarded to the competent Alien's authority. Research visa applications take at least up to 8 weeks to be processed. Applications from Madagascar take a general processing time of 10 to 14 weeks. Status requests being send before the expiration of this processing time will not be answered.

After the application has been approved by the competent Alien's authority or the Federal Agency for work, the German Embassy will issue a residence permit in form of a visa. The duration however may vary. Please inquire when picking up your passport if you have to report to the Alien's authority in Germany after entering the country or not.

For identification purposes and in order to take the fingerprints applicants are requested to be personally present at the German Embassy during Visa submission and hand in the following documents.

Please prepare two identical application sets with all the following documents in the given order. Do not staple any of the documents.

In general, all documents need to be presented in original and two simple copies. If you cannot provide the original of the document, you must present a certified copy and two simple copies.

All documents that are neither German nor English will have to be translated in either language.

Important information: Do NOT send supporting documents without being asked to or BEFORE placing your application.

Incomplete documentation may result in the rejection of your application.
